CIRCULAR, No. 795.

Gen. No. 454.

War Office, 2nd December, 1862

THE attention of the Secretary of State for War having been drawn to a circumstance that, in some of the Regimental Schools, the boys of the grown child school are permitted to attend the Industrial Schools specified in Circulars 130 and 131, and that the capitation grant of 5s. each is claimed thereon, I am directed by Secretary Sir G. C. Lewis to state that, as by such an arrangement much of the useful part of these boys' education is lost, and the expenditure for the Industrial Schools largely increased, he has decided, with the concurrence of His Royal Highness the Field Marshal Commanding in Chief, that the elder boys should be kept under instruction of the schoolmaster during the afternoon, instead of being allowed to attend the sewing classes with the grown girls and infants, and that the capitation grant adverted to in Circulars 130 and 710 should be restricted, as originally intended, to female children and the younger boys who attend the Infant School.

1. NUMEROUS cases having occurred of special issues of fuel, which are authorized by Circular 767, being included in the weekly returns of fuel transmitted to Barrack Masters to this office: Barrack Masters are reminded that all previous authorities are cancelled by Circular 767.

In the event of issues not sanctioned by the above quoted circular being included in the Officers Commanding in the weekly returns, Barrack Masters will point out to the Officers that, if circumstances continue to render a special issue necessary, they should make application for it in the manner prescribed in article 18, page 81, of the Queen's Regulations for the Army.

Barrack Masters will at the same time be careful to furnish the reports required by Circular 668, and to quote the date and number of the order previously sanctioning the issue, if any such exist.

2. The fuel and light authorized for guard rooms under Circular 767 are to be issued daily. Should any difficulties arise in making daily issues, Barrack Masters will in each case make a special report, suggesting the means of obviating them.

CIRCULAR MEMORANDUM. Gen. No. 235.

Addressed to the Army at Home and Abroad.

rms 4 (1862).

Horse Guards, S. W., 3rd December, 1861.

THERE being at present no rules laid down, or fixed principle to guide annual boards of survey assembled under paragraph 34, page 103, of the Queen's Regulations and Orders for the Army, to inspect the arms in possession of regiments, His Royal Highness the Field Marshal Commanding in Chief has been pleased to issue at the following instructions be adhered to in future:—

It is not necessary that numerical returns of all the Arms in possession of the regiment, company by company, should be forwarded to this department; it will be sufficient to state in the proceedings (a form of which is annexed) the total number of rifles which have been found to be in a good and serviceable state, making due allowance for the period they have been in use, and for fair wear and tear, such as dents, cracks, &c., which do not impair the efficiency of the arm.

It should then be shown what rifles can be repaired by the Armourer, at the expense of the regiment, and if it is considered that any repairs executed by him are of value to the public, the usual evidence, showing the circumstances under which the injury was effected, should be taken and appended to the proceedings.

The usual Special Report, by the board, should be made on all such rifles, or parts of rifles, as are considered unserviceable, and which are required to be exchanged for new ones, stating the date of issue, the reason of the damage, and on whom the cost incurred is to fall; and whether, provided the parts are supplied by government, the repairs are executed by the Armourer of the regiment.

A mean deviation of over three feet, at five hundred yards, is to be considered a sufficient inaccuracy to condemn a rifle suspected of being inferior, and tested by the board under the Circular Memorandum, dated Horse Guards, 25th of February, 1861, No. 1. Requisitions for whatever is required, in duplicate, should accompany the proceedings.

By Command. JAMES YORKE SCARLETT,
Adjutant General.

War Office, 19th December,

SIR,—Complaints having been made of the danger arising from firing from heavy guns in small Batteries belonging to Artillery Volunteers, I am directed by Secretary Sir George Lewis to inform you that, in all cases in which blank ammunition is fired from Garrison Batteries in use by Volunteers which consist of four guns, the intervals between the firing should under no circumstances be less than twenty-five seconds, and that especial care should be taken in such cases in pointing out the guns and serving the vent, with the view of obviating, as far as possible, the chance of accident.

I have the honor to be, Sir, your obedient Servant,
To Commanding Officers of Artillery Volunteers. DE GREY AND
